NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

The aged father of Samuel Hamlin died in Casey Tuesday.

A child of Green Lowrey, in Madison county, was burned to death.

Mercer county paid $4,000 last year for repairing 45 miles of free turnpikes.

Dr. O. H. Witherspoon, of Lawrenceburg, was perhaps fatally injured by a fall.

Price Smith, a Mercer county farmer, killed a red fox with an empty paint keg.

There were 343 births and 120 deaths in Adair county last year, says the News.

The eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ballard, of Richmond, was fatally burned.

Judge Fontaine T. Fox, of Louisville, narrowly escaped asphyxiation by gas while taking a bath.

Judge W. L. Brown has called a special term of court to begin at London Jan. 28 for the trial of a large number of criminal cases.

The livery firm of Yeager & Rice, of Danville, has dissolved. W. R. Rice retiring. He will go to Kansas City and engage with a street railway company.

A train on the Louisville & Atlantic was wrecked Thursday night near Valley View. The mail car was burst but no lives were lost. Traffic was delayed several hours.

Milo Shanks has sold the Pantagraph plant at Richmond to his brother, Steve Shanks. T. C. Adams will continue to edit the paper, notwithstanding he has been given the job of storekeeper-ganger at Million's distillery.

The trustees of the C. S. railway have drawn a lease for the road which requires that the lessees shall make the road double track from Cincinnati to Chattanooga, including tunnels, and that the whole shall of first class work.

Dr. John G. Fee, the founder of Berea College, now in his 80th year, is dangerously ill at his home at Berea. He was one of the original abolitionists in the Union, and with Gen. Clodius M. Clay and other celebrities advocated freedom of slaves as far back as the forties.

Those who remember J. R. Rice, the "cowboy preacher," who, with a woman, styled the "Mountain Maid," preached on the streets here some years ago, may be interested in a dispatch from Parkersburg, W. Va., saying that Rice had been picked up in a gutter there dead drunk, with plenty of cash and jewelry on his person.—Richmond Climax

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The residence of Rev. G. N. Cradif, Hardin county, was blown with dynamite by moonshiners, against whom he preached.

There will be communion services at the Presbyterian church Sunday, with the usual preparatory services beginning tonight.

Rev. G. A. Mills, who was called by the Hubbard congregation, will preach his first sermon Sunday morning. Mr. C. C. Withers asks us to state,

A. A. Warren, treasurer, asks us to say that a full attendance of the members of the Christian church Sunday is earnestly desired. Important matters are to be attended to.

The colored Baptists report in the United States: State conventions, 25; publications, 42; colleges, 61; associations, 114; ministers, 14,250; churches, 15,147; members, 1,852,331.

Of each dollar of Southern Methodist mission money, 32 cents goes to missions in Asia and Africa; 16 to missions in South America; 45 to missions in North America, and 8 to expenses.

Mrs. Margaret Elsler, an old resident of Covington, dropped dead during the services at St. Patrick's church. She was kneeling in prayer during the mass when she suddenly fell forward on her face and expired.

Dr. F. H. Kerfoot has gone to Havana to establish two new Baptist churches in Cuba, instead of one, as originally contemplated. The present plan provides for one in Havana for English-speaking Baptists, and one for Cubans, in the province of Pinar del Rio.

DAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, among them the best known, nervousness, palpitation, heart trouble, rheumatism, etc. There's no need to buy like that. Listed in J. W. Garber's, Danville, Ind. He says: "Electric fitness are just too strong for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether to live or die. I can give you strength through the electric, rather than applying it on the body. I can now eat anything and have a new leaseon life." Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store. Every body guaranteed.

C. M. Patterson, a farmer of Lowndes county, Ala., was loading shells from a keg of powder, when a spark fell into the keg, causing an explosion. Patterson's wife and father and one of his children—a girl—received injuries from which they died. Patterson was fatally burned.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The tinsel and weighted little things that ever was made in the King's New Life Pill, every pill is a single tiny jewel, teaming with beauty, comes into strength, brightness into energy, power into control, power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25¢ per box, sold by Penny, Druggist.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Harry Huley, aged 16, and Miss Josie Wilson, 14, were married at Goshen. Henry Gibbons, of Centralia, Mo., broke a blood vessel while quarreling with his wife.

Miss Elizabeth DePauw and J. B. Tucker, both of Goshen, were married at Danville.

J. F. Shaw and Miss Annie Payne, both of the East End, were married at Frank Lilkens' Wednesday.

Miss Louisiana Geigzsy, formerly of Danville, was married to New York to Robert Arkell. The bride is a daughter of Col. Warren Geigzsy.

Dr. Thomas Welch, of Florida, came to his old home town yesterday and took back a bride in the person of Miss Bessie Chisholm.

John Rowland, of St. Louis, and Miss Bette Harris, of Quincy, Ill., were married at East St. Louis in two hours after they were introduced to each other.

Miss Antoinette Ewell Smith, daughter of J. D. Smith, formerly of London, was married at her home in Lantzville to Mai H. Jones, who also used to live in Laurel county.

Announcements of the marriage Jan. 4th of Mr. Royle Owlesley Rodes of Danville to Miss Susan Carroll Cromwell, have been received by friends here. The groom is a capitalist and most excellent man, while his bride is wealthy, attractive and accomplished.

Well! well! well! Who would have thought that the apparently confirmed old bachelor, Hon. George E. Stone, of Liberty, would have ever become a Bachelor? But stranger things have happened and Mr. Stone being a man has at last succumbed to the smiles of

LANCASTER.

The fiscal court convened on Tuesday, settled with the sheriff and adjourned to Jan. 19 to attend to some unfinished business.

The regular compositor must be off on a visit as the type made me use "Roman" without a capital and spell immediately with one m.

The county board of supervisors consist of Wm. Wherrell, Leander Dawson, R. Edward Hackley, W. T. Pherigo and J. G. Burnsides. They began work on Tuesday.

At the final hearing of John and William Fowler, for shooting Carey Robinson on Dec. 25th, Judge Brown dismissed John and held William in a bond of $200.

Our people regret to learn that Mr. D. Powell has quit the grocery business here. He has made many friends on account of his fair and prompt dealing. I do not know where he will locate.

W. L. Lawson shipped a pair of cattle to the Cincinnati market on Tuesday. J. J. Hamilton and Jason Walker are buying mules for the Southern market. R. E. Thompson sold to H. B. Northcutt a cow and calf for $50.

The National and the Citizen's National Banks are both in a flourishing condition and there are not two more reliable and better managed institutions in the State. As usual they declared a semi annual dividend of 3 per cent.

Dr. B. F. Walter, who attended my school, has solved the INTERIOR JOURNAL puzzle. He takes 13 and under it he writes, in units place, 3, 3, 1 and 1. This takes six of the figures, although one is in tens place, and when added together make 21. Is this correct?

Judge Walker is on the sick list, and Joe H. Arnold is doing his work as gauger at the Pilgrimage distillery. One day's mash, which would have yielded 15 barrels of whisky, was lost at that distillery on Monday on account of a defective hoop or stave.

The "Western Stars," a popular, up-to-date musical troupe, will appear here on Jan. 26, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Some of the characters have a National reputation and our ladies would be safe in proposing to refund the admission fee to any honest, intelligent person who is dissatisfied with the performance.

At the meeting of the city council on Monday night, a quorum not being present, they adjourned subject to a call meeting at any time, the call to be made by Mayor Kinnard. There are several candidates for town marshal and city attorney. J. M. Higginbotham, H. H. Hedges and J. A. Hewley, newly elected trustees, took the oath of office.

Dr. H. F. Walter has moved his office into the Thompson building and Joe Niess will move his barber shop into the room vacated by the doctor. Messrs. Crom and Gastineau will move into the Lancaster Hotel building on Danville street. The all around firm of Harris, Hatcher & Hughes now occupies the room between Theo Currys grocery and the Best hotel. Dr. A. Anton is boarding and lodging with Glee Bengt at the Best Hotel. Dr. W. S. Beasley is pleasantly located on Danville Avenue. Mrs. M. A. Fox has moved into the Franklin Institute building. Jessie Doty has moved to town.

In 1899 there were 131 executions by hanging in the United States, an increase of 21 over 1898. Of these the Southern States bad 100 and the North 31. Fifty-eight of those executed were white men, 72 Negroes and one Indian. The total number of suicides was 5,310, as against 5,929 in the preceding year.

There were 105 lynchings. Of these 103 were in the South and four in the North. Of the sufferers 84 were blacks and 23 whites. Forty-four persons were lynched for murder, 11 for complicity in murder, one for arson and murder, 11 for assault, six for alleged assault and one for assault and murder.

More than 13,000,000 packages of flower seed are ready for distribution by the department of agriculture. It means that about 13,000,000 persons are to be disappointed next summer and fall when they watch for results.

Joe Smith, of Madison, a moonshine witness at Frankfort, was caught selling whisky by the drink there and he was arrested, tried and convicted, all in less than an hour. He got $100 fine and three months in jail.

Emperor William having decreed that the 20th century should begin Monday, the day was duly celebrated at Berlin with a great ringing of bells, a court reception and a speech from the Emperor.

While Miss Claude Yewell, of Daviess county, was standing near a fire, a celluloid comb in her hair ignited, burning her hair off completely, but not otherwise injuring her seriously.

The Hoers and Geu, Gatacre's force met at Cyphergut Wednesday, and after a battle, the Hoers captured Moltono. Cyphergut was also taken by the Hoers, but was later abandoned.

The fund for the relief of the widow of Maj. Gen. Lawton already exceeds $50,000. Of this, $44,122 has been entirely reported to Adj't Gen. Corbin.

At a turkey shooting match in Breathitt county, Jerry and Jack Noble on one side, and Jim Painter Noble and Irvine Fugate on the other, exchanged several shots. Both Jim Noble and Fugate were killed. Jerry Noble was shot in the mouth.

REC'D HOT PAINK. THE GU.

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steedman, of Newark, N. J., in the Civil War, caused terrible ulcers that treatment failed to cure? Buckley's Arnica Salve cured him. Curcuma, Brusins, Burnet, Bals, Vervain, Coriander, Skin Extract, Best Oil cure on earth. 25 cts a box. Careguranteed. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Slight was restored to a Chicago boy by the use of X-rays and a delicate surgical operation for removal of a tumor on the brain.

Jim Williams, the Louisville bruiser, was fined $5 for assaulting a young attorney at Frankfort.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

AN APPEAL TO SECURE RIGHT AND JUSTICE.

At the last November election, R. L. Hobble and J. M. Alverson were respectively the democratic sheriff and judge in Stanford District No. 1. Sam'l J. Embry, Jr., was the democratic challenger. Each of these gentlemen, as I verily believe, discharged his duty faithfully and intelligently, and within the limits of the law. As was the right and duty of Embry, he challenged the right of several persons offering to vote, whose qualifications he had reason to doubt. His offending hath this extent and no more. Hobble and Alverson only passed upon challenges made either by Embry or the republican challenger. This is the extent of their offense; yet in a few days after the election, all of these gentlemen were indicted by a Federal grand jury, were arrested, placed under heavy bond and are required to appear next February in the U. S. court at Louisville to answer the charge of confederating and banding together to prevent Negroes from voting.

It is a procedure, the like of which has not been known since the carpetbag reconstruction days of the South.

The best lawyers of the democratic party are of the opinion that the law under which the indictments were found has no application to State elections.

They are also of the opinion that the acts done by these gentlemen are not intended to any law, State or Federal. Nevertheless, they will be subjected to expense in making their defense. As a citizen, as a democrat and as chairman of the democratic committee of Lincoln county, I think it is the duty of every democrat to save these gentlemen the burden of defraying their expenses. They should not be allowed even to bear one cent of it. They did only what the law of their State required them to do. They served their people practically without pay, and they did it according to the law made by and for the people. It would be a shame for the democratic party of Lincoln by refusal, neglect or inertness, to suffer a farthing of cost, legal or extraordinary, to come upon them.

Therefore, as chairman of the democratic committee of Lincoln county, I hereby call upon every democrat of the county to contribute any sum he may see proper to a general fund for defraying their expenses. I call upon them to do it openly, boldly and freely. The object is right; the purpose worthy. If you cannot give more than 50cts, give that much. When you come to your next county court, make your deposit with E. C. Walton, who will receive and account for all sums deposited with him.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JAN. 5, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

THE caucus to nominate a candidate for U. S. Senator was more properly speaking a luto feast. Nobody was even thought of except grand old Joe Blackburn and after Senator Goebel had presented his name and Senator Farris and others seconded the nomination, it was made amid great enthusiasm. The ex and prospective senator made a characteristic speech of thanks and took occasion to say that he believed that the entire democratic State ticket had been elected and would so be declared after an honest and fair investigation. No democrat is more entitled to reward and no man more deserving of it than Senator Blackburn. He made a glorious fight for democracy under the meanest fire of some of his former friends, and that he has won is a great source of gratification to every admirer of the brave and true democrat, who is one under any and all circumstances and never a time server and a trimmer. There were 80 democrats in the caucus, two being unavoidably absent, and they will vote for him on the final round, giving him 82 to a possible combined opposition of 56. It will therefore be seen that no combination can defeat him and that he is sure to be elected by a majority so great that he will be able to read his title so clear that none may doubt what democrats can do when they try.

PRO TEM. GOV. TAYLOR has gone through the form of sending a message to the Legislature, which will doubtless pay little attention to his recommendations, especially when he asks that the Election law be repealed and the management of the penitentiaries taken out of the hands of a democratic board. Some of his suggestions are good, however. Such for instance as provisions for better facilities for the normal education of young women, a woman's reformatory under the management of women and an anti-cigarette law. He thinks that the condition of the treasury, which has discharged a large floating debt, is such as to justify liberal improvements on the capital buildings. He would also have remedial legislation to prevent misconstruction of local option laws, an increase in the liquor license and the trial of members of a mob outside of the county in which they commit a crime. The message is a pretty decent sort of a document and will do until the real governor-elect is given a chance to make suggestions.

BOTH Houses of the Legislature met at noon Tuesday and elected the democratic caucus nominees, whose names were given in our Frankfort special in last issue. In the Senate even the four recalcitrant democrats, Hays, Alexander, Gillispie and Roberte, voted for Senator Goebel and the rest of the nominees were elected by the party vote. R. M. Jolly, of Breckinridge county, the republican nominee for speaker pro tem., voted for Goebel and Goebel returned the compliment. In the House, South Triple, the democratic caucus nominee, was elected speaker, receiving 55 votes to Haswell, of Breckinridge, the republican nominee, 40. A republican was absent and Trimble did not vote. The other democratic nominees were then elected to fill the other offices of the body. Immediately on completing the elections both bodies adjourned till 11 o'clock next day, which hour will be the one for meeting each day.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Miss Pauline Hardin, present incumbent, seems to have a clinch on re-election as State Librarian.

Judge Cantrell will hear arguments in the motion to enjoin Taylor's appointment from entering upon their duties, today.

Guv. McLaurin, of Mississippi, is very severe on the Mormons and recommends a law to prevent them from teaching their doctrine in the State.

Senator Leveridge offered a resolution asserting American sovereignty in the Philippines, and gave notice he would address the Senate on the subject.

The case of Charles E. Sommers for attempting to bribe a delegate to the railroad convention that nominated Senator McChord, was continued till the April term.

It looks now like Hon. W. O. Bradley on one side, and Hon. P. Wat Hardin on the other, might run a race for the U. S. Senate.—Somerset Paragon. Yes, it does very much like it, to be sure.

The democratic caucus of the Mississippi General Assembly unanimously nominated Gov. A. J. McLaurin for the long term in the United States Senate. His term as governor expires this month.

The beautiful lawn surrounding the gubernatorial residence now used for pasturing cows, will doubtless be utilized by Gov. Goebel as a satisfactory enclosure in which to whip his wife.—Frankfort Democrat.

Formal notices of contest have been served on Taylor and Marshall. The charges include conspiracy between republicans and certain corporations to buy the election and 10 grounds are given for the contest.

ELDER SWEENEY evidently believes that public office is a private snap. He has made one of his sons deputy insurance commissioner and given the other a soft berth in the auditor's office. The arrangement will not last, let us hope, however, till the buds are on the trees again.

THE Louisville Trust Company's response to the Franklin circuit court confirms in every particular the story told by Senator Harrell as it related to the hiring of a box by himself and John Whallen to deposit the $4,500 that the Buckingham boss had offered him to keep out of the democratic caucus and to vote against Goebel. The go-between in the matter proved to be Charles Ryan, a railroad lobbyist. In order to keep from being taken to Frankfort as a prisoner, Whallen gave the officers the slip and went there unattended, when he was placed under $10,000 bond to answer the charges of bribery.

Judge Cantrell ordered that Box 559 be brought to Frankfort and opened by the grand jury, which was done and within there lay as Senator Harrell had described four $1,000 bills and five $100. The case against Whallen seems to be dead open and shut and nothing but the intervention of the executive can save him. Everybody is complimenting Senator Harrell for the clever way he trapped the boss and Goebel stock has gone away up. A significant fact in connection with the case is that Wat Hardin and Theodore Hallam appeared as counsel for Whallen.

AN EDITORIAL in the Louisville Commercial reflecting upon democrats who, in the late contest, opposed the election of Mr. Goebel and the principles represented by him, and asserting that the republican party is not as a political organization greatly concerned in the outcome of the contest for the State offices before the election board or the legislature and that it is indifferent to the United States Senatorship, raised a row and a rumpus among the ranks at Frankfort and many of the elect signed a card utterly repudiating it and saying that they owed a debt of gratitude to the Brunswicks that they can never repay. It is claimed that the Commercial is jealous of the patronage the republicans are giving to the Dispatch and the editorial is warning that they must come down with the Ithino, or it will bolt.

THE ACTION of those Judas Iscariots of democracy, Senators Alexander and Hays, in conspiring with the republicans to defeat the party, will not injure them at all with their constituents, since as the Louisville Times, which knows the situation, says they have no constituents. Two dealer mackerels were never barreled than this brace of traitors.

THE LOUISVILLE POST demands that Senator Harrell shall be expelled from the Legislature for exposing its friend, John Whallen. But the Post's suggestion will fall on deaf ears in a body that knows the paper is for everything democracy is against and against everything democracy is for.

It is generally admitted that no matter if Whallen is sent to jail for bribery, Taylor will pardon him. His boasted pull with the pro tem. governor, by whom he obtained a pardon that ought not to have been granted, shows that the two are cheek by jowl.

THE ENGLISH are catching at straws. Their claim of a big victory at Colesburg peters down to a very small skirmish in which four officers only were killed. The British government is realizing more every day that it has a fight on its hands.

THE ELECTION of Miss Margaret Ingles, of Paris, to be enrolling clerk of the House, is a graceful compliment to a most excellent young lady, who has done much for the party that has honored her.

MR. AND MRS. E. P. MORITZ are spending a few days in St. Louis.

MRS. L. A. FARRELL, of Lexington, is visiting her father, Mr. Joe H. Rout.

MISS MOLLIE DAUGHERTY is back from a visit to relatives in Lexington. The Rebolomical Club will meet with Mrs. S. M. Rankin from 2 to 4 this afternoon.

MR. G. D. POWELL, of Lancaster, was here yesterday with an eye to locating.

FRANK HOLTZCLAW is back from Pineville, where he sold seven car loads of hay.

ED. J. Q. MONTGOMERY, of Liberty, was shaking hands with old friends here yesterday.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN S. BAUGHMAN have moved to their farm near Hyattsville.—Advocate.

MRS. SUSIE BLANKENSHIP, of Burquin, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. W. O. Speed.

BORN, to the wife of E. F. Cummins, a brother of our Mr. James F. Cummins, a daughter.

MISS SUSAN FISHER WOODS went to Millerton yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. S. M. Allen.

MISS HETTIE MOORE, of McKinney, is visiting Miss Mollio Vaughan.—Kimbler Cor. Adair News.

MISS WILLIE V. DAWSON is at home from an extended visit to friends in Henderson and other places.

MISS BUTTIE LEWIS is down from Lexington to see her brother, Hazel, who is very ill of pneumonia.

JOHN COULTER, of Yosemite, orders his paper sent to West Nashville, where he and his wife are visiting.

SHERRIFF S. M. OWENS and Clerk James F. Holdam have been kept away from their office several days by illness.

MR. JAMES P. COWDEN brought Miss Ella Wright back from Casey and was the guest of Mr. C. R. Wright a few days.

MR. L. R. JONES, of Pineville, was here yesterday returning to Kentucky University, in which he is a promising pupil.

MRS. DR. J. G. CARPENTER fell on the icy pavement and badly sprained one of her wrists and has been in bed ever since.

J. W. PERRIN has taken the agency of the Milwaukee Machines and will travel two men this year in Lincoln and Garrard.

WISFRED PORTMAN will make his home in Shelby with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Stagg. He started by private conveyance Tuesday.

THEIR Lincoln county friends, and they are many, will be glad to learn that Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Simpson will run the Mason Hotel at Lancaster another year.

MR. I. S. PHILLIPS, after spending a pleasant Xmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Phillips, has gone to Indianapolis, where he is taking a course in dentistry.

MISS ELLA MAY SAUNDERS and Virgo Ballard attended the hop given at the Dillon Hotel, Lexington, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and report a delightful time.

J. GINSBURG has gone to Louisville to buy a stock of furniture, which business he will run in connection with his clothing business, which he says is exceeding his most sanguine expectations.

MRS. AND MRS. J. N. SAUNDERS returned Wednesday from their bridal tour, which embraced a foreign trip, and lasted a little over two months. They will go to housekeeping in their home on Danville Avenue.

"THAT puzzle of yours is going to send some of our people to the asylum," said Mr. W. G. Goode, who was here from Garrard yesterday. "People work night and day on it and not a few have seriously neglected their business," he added.

J. CARROLL BAILEY is receiving the congratulations of his friends on the birth of his first born, a daughter, who made her debut into the cold world at an early hour yesterday morning. The little one weighed 104 pounds and will likely be called for both its grandmothers, the late Mrs. G. A. Lackey and Mrs. J. P. Bailey.

THE Uncle Josh Sprucey Co., a splendid rural melodrama troupe, with two bands and an orchestra, special scenery, &c., and first-class in every respect, will be at Walton's Opera House Thursday night, Jan. 11. Taylor Parvin, the advance man, is here today to see after the advertising.

FIRST-CLASS typewriter for sale. W. H. Warren.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

GO to Dalton for good watch work.

WHITE STAR coffee at G. H. Farris & Co's.

HEATING stoves at cost. Warren & Shanks'.

1,000 YARDS, 12c yard wide percale at the. Severance & Sons.

DW/W. B. PENNY, dentist. Office at residence, Lancaster Street.

SOMETHING new in sacking and shirt waist flannels at J. P. Jones'.

WANTED.—Second-hand horse power for one or two horses. A. C. Sine.

T. C. BALL sold in Bettie Pleasant's house on St. Asaph creek for $200.

DON'T forget our terms are cash on coal and feed. J. H. Baughman & Co.

SEE the big sign SEVERANCE & SONS, across the street opposite the court house.

12 INCHES.—That was the thickness of ice at Middleburg, so Mr. W. C. Bryant writes us.

BRADY & TERRY's butcher shop will always be found well supplied with the choicest meats of all kinds.

DR. PENNY'S dental office at residence, on Lancaster street. You will find him there ready for business.

BUY your coal quick or you will have to take any kind you can get. It is selling fast. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR RENT.—One of the storerooms occupied by Severance & Sons. Apply at this office or to Mrs. M. J. Miller.

THE man who has an ice house and didn't fill it this snap deserves to drink tepid water all next summer and to furnish through all eternity.

THE Severance's new sign, which stretches across the street at their new store, is bound to be seen and read by all who come to town.

MISS NETTIE WHAY asks us to state that messages to all points except J. E. Lyman's residence and Turnersville will be 25¢ from now on.

I HOPE all of those who owe me my note or account will meet me at my old stand Monday and settle up. My business must be closed up. B. K. Warren.

STANFORD has a piano repository. W. H. Wilson has just opened one in the Myers House for D. H. Baldwin & Co., where you can get the best instruments at the lowest price.

DEATH.—Mrs. John M. Cabell, of Louisville, wife of the well-known drummer after whom Cabell Owens was named, died in Louisville of Bright's disease Wednesday.

THE reported purchase of the stock of Minor & Purdiss at Moreland by W. C. Greenling, of Hustonville, did not materialize, the merchants thinking they had too good a thing to dispose of.

Pretty Good—When J. Ginsburg, the clothing man, was introduced in the K. P. Lodge the other night by a brother, his name was pronounced "Ginseng." "That's pretty good," said Ginsburg. "It's worth $2 a pound."

THE Joseph Price Infirmary has another partner. Dr. E. J. Brown has bought a third interest in it and the firm will hereafter be Carpenter, Peyton and Brown. The institution is a noble one and is proving remunerative to the founders.

THE Central Record says that Charley Poindexter and Will Marksby started to the Philippines, but learned on their arrival at Lancaster that Mrs. Aguinaldo was dead and went to Brodhead instead. Sensible boys, Brodhead beats Manila, 10 to 1.

JAILED—Deputy W. L. Wood arrested yesterday Kate Goode and her son, Arthur, on an indictment charging them with stealing diamonds and silvered spoons from Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Foster. They were placed in jail, being unable to give the $150 bail each.

In advertising the meeting of the Somerset Banking Co., when seven directors are to be elected, the Paragon printed it "seven democrats," while unintentionally possibly conveyed a truth. Democrats make the best bank directors and democrats will likely be elected.

NICE PRESENT.—Mr. W. S. Warren asks us to thank the person or persons who made him the timely gift of a barrel of flour. He says Higgins & McKinney's wagon left it at his home, but they won't tell him who ordered it sent. Mr. Warren would appreciate it if other friends would remember him substantially.

THE telephone exchange is growing rapidly and it keeps Homer Wray busy putting in new instruments. Miss Nettie Wray asks us to insist on patrons calling for numbers they want rather than the names of persons they wish to talk to. By doing so it will save her considerable trouble, as the list is getting so long that it is almost impossible to remember everybody's number. Get one of the new guides just gotten out by Mr. George C. Kelker at this office and hang it where the numbers can be easily seen.

65 or 70 acres of land for sale. Apply to D. W. Vandever.

YOUR account is ready. Please come and settle. Beazley Bros.

FOR RENT.—Room over Craig & Hocker's store. W. H. Higgins.

JANUARY 1ST is at hand and your account is ready for you. Please call and settle. H. C. Ripley.

ON account of the advance in feed we charge 35¢ for single feeds and 25¢ for hays, beginning Jan. 1, 1900. Beazley Bros., Everymen.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN.—Squire James Raines fell from his wagon while driving on his place and broke his collar bone. Dr. W. B. O'Bannon attended him and he is doing as well as could be expected.

THE Red Men organized with 35 members Wednesday night. Some of the most prominent men of the order in the State were present. State Organizer J. B. Van Zandt says it is the largest tribe ever organized in the State.

WANTED, 25 dozen gloss cabinets to make at $2 each with order. This number will soon be taken, so if you want to take advantage of the cut get into the band wagon at once. Miss Maggie Sacay, Photographer.

THE livery men, who belong to the association, claim that they have formed no trust whatever, but are merely making a stronger effort to prevent cruelty to horses and destruction to vehicles. In fact it is more of a humane society than anything else.

THE thaw seems to be coming at last, after 10 days of as cold weather as is ever experienced in this locality, during which the mercury has ranged between 4 below and 25 above. Every last germ that is killable by cold has doubtless gone hence and we will have a healthy year.

CAME NEAR FREEZING.—Mr. Ben Boone of the Gilberts Creek section, got lost while going home one of the recent cold nights and slept in an out-house. His hands and feet were frozen next morning and he has been in a fever condition since.

TWO more popular young men never went into business together than Messrs. J. P. Cummings and Forrest S. McClary, especially with the ladies, and it is safe to predict that they will do well. They make a good start by taking a half column in this paper, which we hope and believe will pay them many times the cost of it.

CAN YOU WORK IT?—Hon. D. W. Triddle, who is here from Bleckmon on a visit to his sister, Mrs. P. P. Nunnelly, gave me an answer for the 21 puzzle and submitted the following:

Two men purchased 300 acres of land for $300, each paying exactly $150.

One pays 25 cents an acre more than the other. How much does each pay per acre and how many acres does each get?

A GOOD deal of yesterday was taken up in Judge Hailey's court with the trial between Ben P. Martin and James T. Jones. Martin sued Jones for rent and Jones sued Martin for damages. Each was given $15 and ordered to pay half of the costs. Jones' claim for damages consisted in Mr. Martin's failure to provide fences, thus letting cattle get in on him and further that Martin's son walked on vegetables in his garden and damaged them.

BEFORE Christmas, Mr. A. A. McRoberts, of Salersville, Montana, brother of Mr. W. B. McRoberts, wrote and asked him to send him a black Hickory one, as there was none in his section.

Mr. McRoberts had one that he had used in 1859 when he was hurt in a runaway, a crooked black Hickory, that has done service for several cripples. He sent it by registered mail for 28 cents and yesterday received a receipt that it had been received in good shape.

MT. VERNON.

Mt. Vernon has 12 stores. River Mansion at Livingston has been a scene of gayety since the first day of Christmas.

Sanders Fish, colored, of this place, was the republican legislative caucus nominee for janitor.

Representative Bethurum and family are in Frankfort. They will remain there during session.

Matrimonial Agent E. B. Cox, of this place, will be able to give us some news in his line next week.

County Clerk M. C. Miller has our thanks for courtesies. He is a mighty good man and nearly everybody knows it.

The telephone exchange at Crab Orchard has been temporarily suspended. Work for the present will be done from the Gover House.

The 21 puzzle you published on the 26th, is causing considerable brain racking. How will this do for a solution? (It won't do at all.—Ed.)

Among the little hustlers in newspaper, laundry and other agency work are F. L. Thompson, Jr.; McKenzie Brown and Walter Miller.

John Bright, supervisor of the eighth census district, was here a few days ago copying the records of voting precincts. He is as rapid with the pen as old.

Mr. Harry Blazer, one of Rockcastle's best citizens, and Miss Stella Klein, the handsome and cultured daughter of Mr. G. E. Klein, were married at Laugard Thursday.

All other subjects have been dropped by our citizens and the beginning of the 20th century is being warmly discussed. Jan. 1st, 1900 has many advocates, but 1901 seems to have the majority.

Since the resignation of Town Marshal Abel Pennington, the village has jogged along without a marshal. We understand that W. R. McClure was appointed to the position but as yet has not been sworn in.

Circuit Clerk Grillin says the county only allowed $60 on his and Judge Fish's bill for indexing and filing records, &c, of the clerk's office. He says according to his view of the law $212.80 would have been the proper sum.

Willis Grillin has just discovered that some enterprising thief had visited his garden and pulled up most of his blue turnips, cutting off the tops and replacing the tops where the vegetables were pulled from the ground. The patch continued green.

The only record in the county clerk's office here showing the registration of a dog, says that on Oct. 23, '93, Wm. Gay registered "Mat," a white and liver colored animal. Fee $1. On June 6, '96 he registered his "hog mark." No similar records appear on the books.

By courtesy of the telephone company quite a number of the little folks here found messages in their stockings from Santa Claus, directing them to call at one of our stores for presents that he had over looked in his hurry. The little tots were greatly elated and made a rush to the appointed place and presented their messages for redemption.

Mrs. Sue Mullins is building more houses at Livingston. E. B. Brown is here to see one of the pretty girls. Fred Graves, who has an engineer's position at Birmingham, continues in ill health. E. T. Flueback left Monday for Anniston, Ala., where he will go into the real estate business. Mrs. James Landrum went to Laurel Monday to attend the burial of Mr. McNeill, her father. Logan Thompson is here from Preachersville. Dr. W. A. Brown was up from Parksville. Dr. E. J. Brown was down to see Wm. Whitaker on Rockcastle river Tuesday. Joshua Boreing, Sr., and Jr., returned yesterday from a visit to Nashville relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Krueger visited Louisville last week. Brock Graves and wife were up from Livingston with relatives. D. N. Williams has been appointed administrator for the estate of Sarah Welsh. William Baker, of Pulaski, was here to see relatives. B. F. Euquay, of Mitchell, Indiana, was here last week straightening up his saw mill business. M. C. Williams, the popular drug salesman, dropped off here Friday. Burdett McKenzie visited Rowland friends. Cecilia and Richard Williams were out from Stanford. George Drye came in from Hazel Patch weds. Friday, where he is working a large force of men in the business. R. H. Livesey has moved to Livingston. Geo. McCay has been doing some artistic paper hangings.

HAVING A GREAT RUN ON CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. Manager Martin, of the Pierson Drug Store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.
